FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GIPC extends the entry deadline for the prestigious GC100 Awards

The Ghana Investment Promotion Centre (GIPC) has extended the application deadline for the 21st edition of the prestigious Ghana Club 100 Awards to 11th October 2024.

According to Centre's CEO, Mr Yofi Grant, the extension will provide eligible companies another opportunity to be apply and be ranked among the top 100 businesses in the country.

He explained that eligible companies must be limited liability firms. However, companies with government interest may also participate, provided government ownership is less than 50%, unless they are listed on the Ghana Stock Exchange.

Mr. Grant urged companies aiming to be ranked this year to submit their applications through GIPC's website (<https://www.gipc.gov.gh/ghana-club-100-entries/>). He also announced that the awards ceremony has been rescheduled for October 25, 2024, at The Palms, La Palm Royal Beach Hotel.

Similar to previous years, the 21st edition of the GC100 will feature executive networking sessions, an awards ceremony, and exciting post-event celebrations.

For more information about the event, the business community can contact GIPC at 0302-961745 / 0244318252 or via email at info@gipc.gov.gh
